COMMITMENT OF A BRACE OF HIGHWAY ROBBERS.—John Leary and John McCarty, who were arrested a few days ago for robbing Henry Culper of thirty dollars, at the corner of Broadway and Court-street, were arraigned before Judge Lowe, yesterday morning, and committed in default of ball in the sum of $1,000 each, to await trial before the part term of the Court of Common ore the next term of the Court of Common Pleas.

REMARKABLE CURE OF A MINISTER.—Rev. A. C. Humes, of Indianapolis, adds his testimonials to the large number already received, in regard to a wonderful cure performed upon him by Madame Hollard, No. 271 Walnut-street, after his disease had been pronounced incurable by the best physicians of that place. He also testifies to some other miracles, and says she can perform wonderful cures in female complaints.

VERACITY OF OUR POLICE,-A question of veracity between a policeman and a man named Nathan Dale was decided in favor of named Nathan Dale was decided in favor of the latter, yesterday morning, in the Police Court. He had been arrested upon a charge of abusing his family, and, upon being brought before Judge Lowe, stated that he was merely reprimanding one of its mem-bers, whereupon, the officer interfered, and, after accusing him of drunkenness, carried him to the Station-house. He said he was neither drunk nor disorderly said the Court neither drunk nor disorderly, and the Court not only believed his story, but discharged him. We record this fact because it may possibly mark an era in the administration of justice in the Police Court; for it is an acknowledgement that there are persons in the world who are not policemen, and yet whose veracity even there is undoubted.

A MOTHER STEALS HER CHILD FROM AN OR-PRAN ASYLUM.—On the first of April last, a weman, named Magdalene, Kilroy, was arraigned before Judge Lowe upon a charge of drunkenness and sentenced to a term of six months in the Female City Prison, at which months in the Female City Prison, at which time her son, a lad about eight years of age, was sent to the Orphan Asylum at Cumminsville. Day before yesterday her term of imprisonment expired and she immediately went to the Asylum, and, obtaining access to her boy, carried him off without the knowledge of the officers. Returning to the city, she stopped near the Brighton House, her old appetite came o'er her, and she immediately became intoxicated.

Losing all consciousness, she repaired to a wood-shed in the vicinity and laid down, leaving her boy in the house where she had purchased her liquor. In this disgusting condition she was found shortly afterward and removed to the station-house, whence

A JEST AT THE PRINCE'S EXPENSE.

On Monday morning, while a large crowd was assembled about the private entrance of the Burnet House, long after the Prince of Wales had departed, some person induced one of the servants to go upon the balcony and play the part of Baron Ronfrew. The servant did as requested, walking out with a most important air. As soon as the crowd saw him, and it was whispered that be was the Baron, an old Irish woman looked up, and said: "And he's not the Prince a bit; he's not trely enough, sure, for that snalpeen." CLEARING-UP OF THE MAIN-STREWT MYSTREW.—Coroner Carey, yesterday morning, held an inquest upon the body of the man who was found dead in a private alley, near the corner of Liberty and Main-streets, an account of which we published in our last issue. The investigation developed the fact that he had passed Sunday night in the coffee-housent the corner of Clay and Liberty-street, kept by Ann Pronizius, and that he had died in bed, of intemperance. To save herself from the cost of interring the deceased, the woman hired two men, by giving them each a glass the cost of interring the deceased, the woman hired two men, by giving them each a glass of liquor, to carry the body and place it in the alley where it was afterward discovered. She then rifled his pockets of fifteen cents, with which she paid herself for the liquor the men drank. The name of the deceased was Henry —. He was a native of Ireland, and an ink-peddler, but his residence and relatives are unknown. Charles Hammond, one of the men alluded to above, was arrested subsequently, and fined $20 and costs for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. The officer accompanied him to the house for the purpose of collecting the fine, when he slipped out the rear way and esnear Fourth.
